

WORDS ALIVE!: Building VOCABULARY And Stimulating Writing

A Video for Teachers of Grades 3-12
 led By Dr. John C. Carr, Professor Emeritus, University of Maryland/College Park

From
The Kennedy Center's
Professional Development Opportunities for Teachers

The 90-minute video workshop for teachers, Words Alive!: Building Vocabulary and Stimulating Writing, focuses on multi-sensory activities that use Word Walls (large displays of words, phrases, sentences, and symbols selected by students) and Commonplace Books (multi-sensory journals and annotated personal anthologies) to help students improve both their vocabularies and their writing skills.
